Season of travel II

On February 23 we had the privilege of saying Hi to you here in the bulletin, from Chiang Mai Thailand. We mentioned it would be a season of travel.

Thank you for your prayers!

The Achok have safely made it to the first (and most remote, most "adventurous" travel required) village on their itinerary. Sweet, rich fellowship is being had as they share their progress on Matthew, Mark and Luke since they last met.

Our family safely arrived in Canada (Edmonton) early in the month. Even as I write, we are packing to make the drive across to Manitoba.

Praise God for the gift of in-person connections. Pray for his Spirit to move among us as we spend time together - whether distantly located Achok meeting once a year or Priests arriving in their Ridgewood home.

Ken and Victor (foreground) carefully collecting information from their fellow Achok in the most difficult to reach village.

Catching a snooze in the airport.
